‘ To realize Mahamudra is really true freedom ’
Kyabje Chime Rinpoche, Cornwall 2009

Kyabje Chime Rinpoche was one of the first reincarnate lamas to come to the West, and has lived in England since 1965. He worked for 16 years as the curator of the Tibetan Language Collection at the British Library in London. Rinpoche was born in 1939 near Jyekundo, East Tibet and was educated in Benchen Monastery. He received the transmissions of Mahamudra from His Holiness the 16th Gyalwang Karmapa & the 9th Sangye Nyenpa Rinpoche, and Dzogchen from His Holiness Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche. He was introduced to the essential nature of his own mind by Khenpo Gangshar. Through his profound understanding of modern life Rinpoche conveys in teachings the complete spectrum of Buddhism in a direct, poignant, and humorous, yet vivid style.

Non-residential, with accommodation available for those traveling from afar.
Please bring picnic lunch - with option to pre-order light lunch £5 if wished.
